The middle half of the book explores the history of the fruit's transformation to what we think of today when we think of bananas. This is fascinating — ripe, if you will — with wars and revolutions, history and literature, business and politics, and enough colorful characters and events for a half-dozen movies.

Summary and book reviews of Banana by Dan Koeppel

A fruit may need to bounce a few times before they can be collected; you will receive 100 points for each bounce, and each fruit successfully collected is worth 1000 points. Starting with 5 lives as displayed at the top left corner, one life will be deducted when a fruit is dropped onto the ground. When all lives are gone, the game ends.
